ARTICLE III

Purpose.

The general nature and purpose of the corporation shall be:

Section 1. To educate members and non-members on the saving grace and power of Jesus Christ.

Section 2. To provide a geographic location where believers can worship Christ and strengthen their faith and where non-believers can come to experience Christ in a direct and personal relationship.

Section 3. To assist Jesus Christ in healing those who are physically, emotionally, mentally, and spiritually infirm.

Section 4. To teach about the great commission and to encourage followers to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ to the four corners of the earth.

Section 5. In fulfilling the above purposes, to remain faithful to the Word of God as reflected in the Holy Bible.

Section 6. To the above ends, the Corporation is empowered to perform all acts authorized by law; provided, however, the corporation shall not engage in any activity that is not permitted by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any corresponding future provision of the Revenue Code, and the Corporation shall not attempt to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, nor shall it intervene in or participate in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member or private individual, and no member, director, or officer of the Corporation shall receive any pecuniary benefit from the Corporation, except such reasonable compensation as may be allowed for services actually rendered to the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

Duration.

The corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE V.

Membership.

The qualifications for membership in the corporation shall be as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI.

Manner of election of directors.

The number of directors and the manner in which the directors are elected shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation, except that the number of directors shall never be less than the minimum number required by Florida and federal law for entities of the type which qualify for federal income tax exemption under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or subsequent amendments.

ARTICLE VII.

Manner of election of officers.

The offices of the corporation and the manner in which the officers are elected shall be set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII.

Bylaws.

The Bylaws of the corporation may be altered or amended from time to time upon the vote of a majority of the Board of Directors present at any regular meeting of the Board, or otherwise in accordance with the Bylaws themselves.

ARTICLE IX.

ARTICLE X.

Distribution on dissolution.

Upon the dissolution or other termination of the Corporation, no part of the property of the Corporation or any of the proceeds shall be distributed to or inured to the benefit of any of the members of the Corporation, but all such property and proceeds, subject to the discharge of valid obligations of the Corporation, shall be distributed as directed by members of the Corporation among one or more corporations, trusts, community chests, funds, or foundations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inure to the benefit of any private shareholder, member, or individual, and no substantial part of whose activities consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or which does not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate or public office, or other entities of the type which qualify for federal income tax exemption under Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or subsequent amendments.

ARTICLE XI.

Right to indemnification.

To the extent permitted by the law of Florida, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including all appeals by reason of the fact that person is or was acting as a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation. Indemnification shall be against all expenses, including without limitation, attorney's fees, court costs, expert witness fees, judgments, decrees, and fines reasonably and actually incurred by the person in settlement of any action, suit, or proceedings provided that the Board of Directors shall first have determined, in its sole judgment, that the person acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XII.
