Article XVI: INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall indemnify a Director or officer of the Corporation who has wholly and successfully, on the merits or otherwise acted on behalf of the Corporation, in the defense of any proceeding to which the Director or Officer is or was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the corporation against reasonable attorney fees or expenses incurred as a result of a direct connection with the proceeding. The corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation against liability authorized in the specific case after termination, in the manner required by the board of directors, so long as the indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agents, as the case may be, is the standard of conduct set forth by the Board of Directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for Directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation, shall apply when such persons are serving or have served at the Corporation's request while a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, as the case may be. The Corporation may also pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The corporation may also purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All reference in these Article of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in the Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right to indemnification or advancement of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause, or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees and expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be several and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected.
