ARTICLE III

Section 1:

The general purpose of the corporation shall be to operate exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as said terms are defined within Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, as well as any other exempt purposes described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

Section 2:

The corporation shall be a corporation not-for-profit, and no part of the income is distributable to its members, directors, or officers. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the above-described purposes, no part of the net earnings of which shall inure to the benefit of any private individual, no substantial part of the activities of which shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and which does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation will not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

Section 3:

Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, educational, literary, and scientific purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501 (c)(3), Internal Revenue Code.
