Articles of Incorporation - Orange County Voters League, Inc.

In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS

11 JUL 11 PM 3:30

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the corporation shall be: Orange County Voters League, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The Principal street address of the Corporation is 927 S. Goldwyn Avenue, Suite 219, Orlando, Orange County, FL 32805.

The Mailing address of the Corporation, if different, is: PO Box 550117, Orlando FL 32855-0117.

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The corporation is organized exclusively for social welfare purposes as described under Section 501(c)4 of the Internal Revenue code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including, but not limited to:

- promoting the common good and general welfare of the community by educating voters about the national, state and local political processes;
- informing and educating citizens about issues that impact their local communities and qualities of life, registering them to vote in state and federal elections,;
- assisting in the effort to get qualified voters out to vote on and before election days, and to do all such things as may be necessary or desirable in carrying out this mission to benefit the general public.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and in any event, shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

The organization will from time to time, as decided by the members, accumulate and account for a fund to be set aside for legal costs to defend the public safety or quality of life of citizens, including the right to vote and participate in state and federal elections

ARTICLE IV MEMBERS

The organization shall have one or more classes of members, and the designation of such class or classes, the manner of election or appointment, and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the by-laws. Membership shall be open to the general public.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORS AND MANNER OF ELECTION

The management of the association shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the corporation's bylaws. No Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation. Directors will be elected by the membership at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE V DISSOLUTION AND PUBLIC BENEFIT

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three above.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
