SANAD TRUST FOUNDATION Inc.
Articles of Incorporation

The Corporation shall not have or exercise any power or authority either expressly, by interpretation or by operation of law, nor shall it directly or indirectly engage in any activity, that would prevent it from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Article VIII. Additional Provisions

1. The Corporation may carry on any business, operation or activity referred to in Article Third to the same extent as an individual, whether as principal, agent, contractor or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction or a joint venture or other arrangement with any Corporation, association, trust, firm or individual.
2. The Corporation shall have no members.
3. The directors may make, amend or repeal the Bylaws in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision thereof which is prohibited by law.
4. A director of the Corporation shall not be liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that elimination of liability is not permitted under the Section 617.0831 of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act as in effect at the time such liability is determined. No amendment or repeal of this Article Second shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any directors of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omission of such director occurring prior to such amendment or appeal.
5. The Corporation shall have all powers granted to corporations organized under the laws of the State of Florida provided that no such power shall include any activity impermissible under the laws of Section 617.0301 of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act or Article III that references purpose of the Corporation.
6. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and/or scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").
7. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Nowithstanding any provision hereof, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 1709(c)(2) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
8. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to state or local government for a public purpose.
