ARTICLE VIII - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation is organized exclusively for one or more purposes as specified in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1964 (the "IRC"), and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under IRC Section 501 (c)(3) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

B. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation), and no member, trustee director or officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

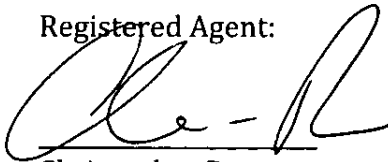

C. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by IRC Section 501 (h), or participating in or intervening in (including the publication and distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

D. In the event of dissolution, all of the remaining assets and property of the corporation shall, after necessary expenses, be distributed to another organization exempt under IRC Section 501 (c)(3), or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, or to the Federal government, of state or local government for a public purpose, subject to the approval of a Justice of the highest Court of the State of New Mexico.

E. In any taxable year in which the corporation is a private foundation as described in IRC Section 509(a), the corporation shall distribute its income for this period at such time and manner as not to subject it tax under IRC Section 4942, and the corporation shall not (a) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in IRC Section 4941 (d), retain any excess business holdings as defined in IRC Section 4943 (c), (b) make any investment in such manner as subject the corporation to tax under IRC Section 4944, or (c) make any taxable expenditures as defined in IRC Section 4945 (d) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax law.

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
