ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The Purpose of creating this nonprofit organization, Hope 4 All, Inc., is to be able to go to Haiti and help support peasant led community organization in order to help farmers:

- Increase land productivity and improve food security by providing ox plows, goat breeding, and grain mills
- Helping them to build community cisterns and irrigation systems to help the communities' secure safe and efficient water supplies while community reforestation projects curb deforestation.
- Improve economic conditions
- Increase availability of food
- Reduce erosion
- Improve environment
- Increase availability of potable water
- Increase democratic functioning

Hope 4 All, Inc will also help promote through their projects:

- Non-violence
- Gender equity
- Self-sustainability
- Non-partisanship
- Grassroots democracy

The main projects of this organization will be concentrating on the following Program Initiatives:

- Sustainable Development — Sustainable agricultural projects help increase food security and income for peasant families. Many of these projects benefit women, who bear more of the burden in the agricultural economy.
- Community Micro-credit — Members of a community organization band together to form collective micro-enterprise funds to provide one another with much needed capital to start self-sustaining community projects.
- Animal Husbandry — In rural Haiti, wealth is measured in pigs and goats. For years, as conditions worsened in Haiti, the number of pigs and goats dwindled. Thanks to the self-sufficient projects run by grassroots groups, pig and goat breeding is again on the rise and contributing to the economic development of rural communities.

- Environment — The conservation of Haiti's waning natural resources will be central to all Hope 4 All projects. Community cisterns and irrigation systems help communities secure safe and efficient water supplies while community reforestation projects curb deforestation — the most rapid in the Western Hemisphere.
- Organizational and Leadership Training — alongside our routine technical and management training programs, Hope 4 All, Inc. will provide organizational and leadership development training programs for peasant organizations and women's associations.
