ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

HOLY SPIRIT CHRISTIAN CENTER, INC.

FILED
SEP 30 AM 10:27

The undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation hereby forms a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this corporation is HOLY SPIRIT CHRISTIAN CENTER, INC. with its initial principal office at 6005 61st Street East, Palmetto, Florida 34221.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

The existence of this corporation shall begin when these Articles of Incorporation have been filed with the Department of State of the State of Florida. This corporation is to exist perpetually.

ARTICLE III - GENERAL PURPOSES

The general purpose for which this corporation is organized and the general nature of activities to be conducted by this corporation shall be:

To provide for worship and instruction in the Christian faith; to advance spiritual growth, healing and deliverance, and enlightenment, moral and personal purity among its own membership and the people of the community in which it is located; and, to aid in the dissemination of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and to do and perform any other charitable acts or things, and to have and exercise any and all powers and privileges now or hereafter conferred by law upon a corporation not for profit in the State of Florida and to conduct any and all lawful activities for which corporations not for profit may be incorporated under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

For the purpose of promoting the foregoing objectives, this corporation shall have the right to acquire; either by gift or purchase and to hold, own, sell, mortgage, or encumber in any manner, lease and improve real estate and personal property for itself and others.

The property of this corporation is dedicated irrevocably to the purposes as stated in this Article III of these articles. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP

Members shall be admitted, if any, as set forth in the By-Laws of the corporation.
