ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

Family Recovery Resources, Inc. 2405 Antigua Circle, B-3 Coconut Creek, Florida 33066

The undersigned incorporator(s), desiring to form a corporation, herein after referred to as the "Corporation" pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Non-Profit Incorporation Act, (herein after referred to as the "Act") executed the following articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE I

NAME/REGISTERED OFFICE

The name of this corporation shall be Family Recovery Resources, Inc.

ARTICLE II PURPOSES AND POWERS

Section 2.01 PURPOSES

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, and consists of the following:

A. The specific and primary purposes are to: End addiction and relapse in this generation.

To that end, Family Recovery Resources will:

- 1. provide classes, groups, individual coaching services and other resources to addicts and family members that will educate them and help them develop their skills in
 - a. the principles of recovery
 - b. the areas of career and life purpose in order for them to build the knowledge base, skills and practical experience necessary to make recovery permanent in their lives.

- 2. provide services specifically designed to help the children and teenagers of families affected by addiction to find and pursue:
 - a. recovery resources
 - b. opportunities and experiences that will lead them to find and pursue their own life passions in order to most effectively immunize them against the family disease of addiction.

B. The general purposes and powers are to have and exercise all rights and powers conferred on corporations formed under the Act, provided, however, that the Corporation shall not, except in an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or accept any powers that are not in the furtherance of the specific and primary purposes of the corporation.

Section 2.02 Public Benefit Corporation.

This is a Public Benefit Corporation as defined by the Act.

Section 2.03 Tax-Exempt Purposes

A. The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501c3 of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
