E. Amendments:

Article I Name

The name of the corporation shall be: Music for Life, Inc.

Article II Purpose

This corporation is organized pursuant to Florida Statutes Section 617.0301 for any lawful purpose not for pecuniary profit and not specifically prohibited to corporations under other laws of this state. Such purposes include but are not limited to charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, religious, educational, historical, civic, patriotic, literary, cultural, and commercial, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The purpose is to honor and glorify God through the promulgation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through radio, television, music performance, and internet broadcasts; additionally through publications, seminars, musical productions, workshops, meetings and conferences; to evangelize the lost; to minister help and encouragement to the needy; to train and disciple adherents; to engage in any lawful activity for which non-profit corporations may be organized under the general corporate Law of the State of Florida.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Cod, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IV Manner of Election (Board of Directors)

The corporation shall have a board of directors consisting of at least three or more individuals.

(1) The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the bylaws, but the corporation must never have fewer than three directors.

(2) Directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the terms provided in the bylaws.

(3) Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term to which he or she is elected or appointed and until his or her successor has been elected or appointed and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation, removal from office, or death.

Article VIII

The corporation shall have power to:

(1) Have succession by its corporate name from the date of filing of these Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation with the Department of State, and the corporation shall have perpetual existence thereafter.

(2) Sue and be sued and appear and defend in all actions and proceedings in its corporate name to the same extent as a natural person.

(3) Adopt, use, and alter a common corporate seal. However, such seal must always contain the words "corporation not for profit."

- (4) Elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require.
- (5) Adopt, change, amend, and repeal bylaws, not inconsistent with law or its articles of incorporation, for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and the exercise of its corporate powers.
- (6) Increase, by a vote cast as the bylaws may direct, the number of its directors so that the number shall not be less than three but may be any number in excess thereof.
- (7) Make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, or income.
- (8) Conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this act in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or any foreign country.
- (9) Purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise, or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.
- (10) Acquire, enjoy, utilize, and dispose of patents, copyrights, and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein.
- (11) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.
- (12) Purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, convey, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares and other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district, municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.
- (13) Lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds loaned or invested except as prohibited by s. 617.0833.
- (14) Have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to affect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

However notwithstanding anything in these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 11 hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

15) Have the authority to ordain candidates to the Gospel Ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. This authority shall be vested in the directors requiring the unanimous consent of the Board.

Procedures: The candidate for ordination shall present himself to the directors for examination to determine whether or not the candidate possesses the qualifications of a minister as set forth in the Bible's Holy Scriptures, with particular emphasis being placed upon character, conduct, conscience, and personal knowledge of the Word of God.

Ordination: A candidate found worthy by the directors shall present himself for Ordination at a meeting and shall publicly proclaim his commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, and thereupon by prayer and laying on of hands by no less than two of the directors, be ordained as a Minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Certificate of Ordination: The newly ordained Minister shall receive a Certificate of Ordination by Music for Life, Inc. duly executed by the proper officers and impressed with the corporate seal.

Article VIII (b)

The power to adopt, alter, or amend the Bylaws shall be vested in the Board of Directors of this corporation.

Article VIII (c)

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law.

Article IX Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, the assets of this corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
