PURPOSE

Section 4.1. The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is for transacting any and all lawful business for which the corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and to distribute the whole or any part of the income for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes. The purposes of the Corporation, in addition to the other purposes described in the preceding sentence, are to 'Celebrate Life' by:

- (i) Distributing gifts at hospitals to babies born on December 25th
- (ii) Distributing gifts to children at the homeless shelters on December 25th
- (iii) Providing grief support and counseling for families grieving during the holiday season(s)
- (iv) Bringing together families who are grieving from the loss of a loved one and giving them an opportunity to give back during holiday season(s) as an outlet to overcome grief, sadness, loneliness, and depression.

Section 4.2. The Corporation shall have the power , either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary , useful, suitable, desirable, or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attainment of any or all the purposes for which the Corporation is organized , and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in the Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations.

Section 4.3. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any Director or Officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes); and no Director or Officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

Section 4.4. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 4.5. The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Section 4.6. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Section 4.7. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exists or as they may hereafter be amended.

Section 4.8. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation, exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such a manner, or to such organization(s) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, as shall at time qualify exempt organization(s) under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so dispose of shall be disposed of by the court having proper jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
