INFINITY

THE LEAGUE TO AID ABUSED CHILDREN AND ADULTS, INC.

December 14, 2006

Dear Florida Department of State,

We are writing to you to state that we, the Officers and Board of The League to Aid Abused Children and Adults, Inc. did not receive the annual report notices that may have been sent. It is our hope that you might waive the reinstatement fee that you normally charge. A provision for this kind of waiver is stated on the form.

As you can see by our previous years' records, our past Treasurer, Ann Foster was faithful in filing this form for many years. Unfortunately, she became very ill and needed to be hospitalized and out of the area for extended periods of time. Because the Annual Report was something that Ann filed for us, we, the Board, didn't realize that it was due.

We are concurrently applying for a change in registered agent, who is Margaret McQueen. (A copy of that form is enclosed.)

We will assume that this waiver will be granted, and have enclosed the fee for the current filing. ($61.25) Please notify us if there are further fees due.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
