Apostolic Life Church of Lake Placid, Inc
Articles of Amendment
(A Not-for-Profit Corporation)

Article 3: Purpose

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes including, for such purposes the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any education and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. To that end, the corporation is empowered to hold any property, and any undivided interest therein without limitation as to the amount or value; to dispose of any such property and deal with the principal of income in such a manner as, in the judgement of the Board of Directors, will best promote the purpose of the corporation, without limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which the property is received. These Articles of the corporation, the By-Laws, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or advancement thereof, but not for the pecuniary profit of financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under Not-for-Profit Law.

Apostolic Life Church of Lake Placid, Inc. shall promote, encourage, foster and engage in the dissemination of religious and moral teaching and instruction for the support of public and worldwide worship in accordance with the teachings of Jesus Christ as found in the Bible, through all legitimate means.

In general, to do any and all acts and things, and to exercise any and all powers which now or hereafter are lawful for the corporation to do or exercise under and present to the laws of the State of Florida for the purpose of accomplishing any of the purposes of the corporation.

The purposes for which the corporation is organized shall be limited to those which are strictly charitable. In no event shall this corporation engage in any activity which would be contrary to the purposes and activities: (1) permitted to be engaged in by any organization the activities which are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or (2) of a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder.

The corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on an unrelated trade or business as defined in Section 513 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1980, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private individual except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one of more of its purposes. No member or officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. No part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The corporation shall not participate in or intervene in the publication or distribution of statements of any political campaign on behalf of a candidate for public office.

The corporation is organized to serve public interests. Accordingly, it shall not be operated for the benefit of private interests.

Article 12: Powers

The corporation shall have all the powers granted to not for profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida which are necessary or convenient to effect any and all purposes for which the corporation is organized. In no event, however, shall the corporation have or exercise any power which would cause it not to qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) or Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as hereafter amended, and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder; not shall the corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.
