The specific religious object of the church is the promotion, teaching and furthering the gospel of Jesus Christ as set forth in the Bible, and to perpetuate an organization of Christians, self-governing as to all actions and proceedings.

Section 2. Policy: The government of this church is vested in the body of baptized believers who compose it. It is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes and sustains through obligations of mutual counsel and cooperation which are common among Baptist churches, and so chooses voluntarily to affiliate and cooperate in the work and fellowship of other Baptist churches and entities.

Section 3. Doctrine: This church receives the Scriptures as its authority in all matters of faith and practice. It takes the Bible and the Bible alone as the standard by which all matters of belief and conduct are to be decided.
