Purposes

(a) The corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Church") is organized and shall be operated as a church founded on, and governed in accordance with, the following fundamental Christian doctrines:

(1) that the Holy Scriptures, Old Testament and New Testament, as verbally inspired by God, are inerrant in the original text, and the final authority in all matters of life, death, and faith.

(2) that there is one God who is eternal and exists in three separate, yet equal, persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, who make up the Godhead, with all divine attributes residing equally in all three as they are separate yet one, being known as the Trinity.

(3) that man was created in the image of God; that man sinned and in so doing brought not only physical death but spiritual death; that all human beings are born with a sinful nature and are held responsible to God for their sins; that infants and those born mentally incapacitated go to Heaven upon death.

(4) that Satan exists and yet is to be rejected in all forms and works.

(5) that Jesus Christ was and is incarnate God; that Jesus Christ was begotten by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary; that Jesus Christ is fully God and fully man with no mixture of the two natures (the Hypostatic Union).

(6) that Jesus Christ died for the sins of all mankind as a substitutionary sacrifice; that Jesus Christ was resurrected in the body and that He ascended into Heaven; that Jesus Christ now acts as our High Priest, Intercessor and Advocate; that Jesus Christ holds three offices: Priest, Prophet and King.

(7) that whosoever believes and accepts Jesus Christ as Savior is born again and is a new creation; that this salvation is completely by faith; that works take no part whatsoever in the salvation experience; that those who believe in and accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior are justified and sanctified at the moment of salvation; that sanctification takes place positionally at the moment of salvation, progressively throughout the believers life and ultimately in the presence of God.

(8) that all-people who are born again believers will still sin while they remain on this earth due to the fallen human nature possessed by all men and women; that as long as the sin is confessed there is forgiveness from God through the blood of Jesus Christ; that once an individual is truly born again it is impossible for them to lose their salvation.

(9) that water Baptism and the Lords Supper (the only sacraments of the Church) are reserved for the regenerate Church; that the Lord's Supper is to be observed in remembrance of Jesus Christ; that the ideas of consubstantiation or transubstantiation or water Baptism for infants are to be rejected.

(10) that Angels exist and were created before the earth; that they are spirit beings and are higher creatures than men and are not subject to death; that all angels were created holy until Satan introduced sin.

(11) that there will be a Rapture of the Church prior to the Tribulation; that this Rapture will be the first resurrection in which the New Testament saints will receive their glorified bodies; that at the end of the Tribulation Jesus Christ will bound Satan for one thousand years and the Millennial Kingdom will begin; that at this moment the second resurrection will take place; that this resurrection will be that of the Old Testament saints; that there will be some who come through the Tribulation, particularly the Jews who are preaching the Word of God; that at the end of the Millennial Kingdom there will be a third resurrection which consists of non-believers; that this is when the Judgment will take place and Satan and all who have rejected Jesus Christ will be thrown into the Lake of Fire for eternity thus ushering in the New Heaven and New Earth where all believers will live eternally in the presence of God.
