The street address of the initial principal office and the mailing address of the Corporation is: 3582 Bryce Street, Cocoa, Brevard County, Florida 32926.

ARTICLE 3.
INITIAL REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The street address of the initial Registered Office of the Corporation is 3582 Bryce Street, Cocoa, Brevard County, Florida 32926, and the name of its initial Registered Agent at that address is Kathryn Souder.

ARTICLE 4.
MEMBERS

The Corporation will have one or more classes of members, who will be admitted in the manner as set forth in the Bylaws. The members will have the rights and privileges that are set forth in the Bylaws. Twenty five percent (25%) of all voting members will constitute a quorum. The Corporation will not issue shares of stock.

ARTICLE 5.
NOT-FOR-PROFIT

The Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes. The Corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the Corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its members, directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these Articles of Incorporation, under the law, and under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986(the "Code"). No member will have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the Corporation. No part of the income or assets of the Corporation will be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles of Incorporation, under the law, and under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE 6. DURATION

The duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE 7. PURPOSES

The Corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes, including but not limited to the following:

A. Sponsoring, organizing, administering, enhancing, and providing conferences, seminars, workshops, classes, shows, specialties, matches, lure coursing, publications, websites, and other educational or competitive activities regarding various dog breeds, but especially the Saluki, which benefits its members and the public through educating students, professionals, amateurs and the general public regarding the skills, arts, and science involved in those certain dog breeds.

B. Providing other means of education and competition to improve the study and understanding of the Saluki.

C. Engaging in other charitable, scientific, competitive and educational activities that support the foregoing purposes and are not otherwise prohibited by these Articles of Incorporation or applicable law.

ARTICLE 8. POWERS

Solely for the foregoing purposes, the Corporation will have the following powers:

A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Section 617.0302 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate, or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal and proceeds of such property.

B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the foregoing purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-for-Profit Act, and any successor or amendment to the Act.

C. To do other things that are incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 9. LIMITATION

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation will inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation will be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 7 (Purposes) of these Articles.

ARTICLE 10. TAX-EXEMPT STATUS

It is intended that the Corporation has, and will continue to have, the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and which is other than a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of the Code. These Articles will be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation will be limited accordingly. All references in these Articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code or Code will be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it may be amended from time to time, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation will be the carrying on for propaganda. The corporation will not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE 11. DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets will be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code or will be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of will be disposed of by a Court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the court will determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
