ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

ROCK ORLANDO, INC.

The undersigned subscriber to these Articles of Incorporation, a natural person competent to contract, hereby forms a corporation not for profit under the "Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act", Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this corporation ("Corporation") is: Rock Orlando, Inc.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSES

This Corporation is organized, and shall be operated, exclusively for the benefit of Rock Orlando Center for Transformation, Inc. a Florida Not for Profit Corporation ("Rock Orlando Center for Transformation") by acting as a supporting organization to Rock Orlando Center for Transformation within the meaning of Section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and the regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Regulations"). This Corporation shall receive and maintain a fund or funds of real or personal property, or both, and, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, shall pay substantially all of the income therefrom to or for the benefit of Rock Orlando Center for Transformation. If Rock Orlando Center for Transformation should lose its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or if it is dissolved, or if it suffers a substantial failure or abandonment of its operations, then such organization which is tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and is classified as a public charity (not a private foundation) under Section 509(a) of the Code, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, shall be substituted for Rock Orlando Center for Transformation in this Article II. Any such substituted supported organization may likewise be replaced by action of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of Section 5. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 6. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Corporation shall either operate as a private operating foundation in a manner to qualify as a private operating foundation for purposes of Section 4942 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws; or it shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as to not become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 7. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Corporation shall not retain any "excess business holdings" as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 8. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Corporation shall not make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 9. During any period that it is a "private foundation" as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, or a corresponding provision of any subsequent Federal tax laws, the Corporation shall not make any "taxable expenditures" as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4945(a) or corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XIII

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of this Corporation the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, pursuant to the procedure of provisions of Florida Statutes §617.1406, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively to Rock Orlando Center for Transformation, Inc., or to a successor supported organization designated as
