The Corporation shall have six (6) Directors initially. The number of Directors of the Corporation may be increased or diminished from time to time by the Bylaws but shall never be less than five (5). The method of selection of directors is stated in the Bylaws of this Corporation.

B. The Directors named herein as the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first meeting of Members at which time an election of Directors shall be held.

C. Directors elected at the first annual meeting, and as all times thereafter, shall serve for a term of one year or until the first annual meeting of Members following the election of Directors and until the qualifications of the successors in office. Annual meeting shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place or places as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time by resolution.

D. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if the majority Members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the corporation authorize the Directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

E. The Corporation shall possess all powers allowed by law, including but not limited to the powers hereinafter described:

(1) To exercise all rights and powers conferred by laws of the State of Florida applicable to Corporations of this character, including but not limited to the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donations, contributions, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitations as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, loan, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of such property and income, principal, and proceeds of any such property.

(2) To purchase, invest, acquire, own, hold reinvest, guarantee, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, loan or otherwise dispose of and deal in any bonds, securities, evidence of indebtedness or other personal property, as well as to purchase, invest, acquire, own, hold, reinvest, sell, transfer, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of and deal in real estate; and, as the owner of any such real or personal property, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership.

(3) To receive assistance, money, real or personal property and any other form of contributions from any person, firm or corporation, or any organization, ministry, or church, to be utilized in the furtherance of the objects and purposes of the Corporation; to enter into agreements or contracts for regular and irregular contributions to the Corporation for its objects and purposes.

(4) To establish an office and employ such assistance and clerical force as may be necessary and proper in the judgment of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(5) To use or distribute in the manner, form and method and by the means determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and all form of the contributions received by it in the furtherance of its stated purposes, in the manner that assures that money and real and personal property contributed to the Corporation in the furtherance of these objects and purposes are and shall continue to be impressed with a trust for such purposes.

(6) To contract and be contracted with and to sue and be sued.

(7) To invest and reinvest surplus funds in such securities and properties as the Board of Directors of the Corporation may from time to time determine.

(8) To apply the whole or any part of the income and principal of the Corporation exclusively for purposes related to the Christian Faith, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 507(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding of any successor laws or regulations, collectively "the Internal Revenue Code".

(9) To do all acts and things requisite, necessary, proper and desirable to carry out and further the objects for which the Corporation is formed, and, in general, to have all the rights, privileges and immunities, and enjoy all the benefits of the laws of the State of Florida applicable to corporations of this character, including, but not limited to the powers described in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

(10) To adopt and use a Corporation seal containing the words "corporation not for profit" or "not for profit", if desired and deemed necessary.

The enumeration of the foregoing shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the Corporation. The objects, purposes and powers of the Corporation however, shall be exercised, construed and limited in their application to accomplish the religious, charitable and educational purposes, for which the Corporation is formed. The activities of the Corporation, shall be consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE XIII
Indemnification

Every person who now is or hereafter shall be a Director or Officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all costs and expenses (including counsel fees) hereafter reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him/her in connection with, or resulting from, any action, suit or proceedings of whatever nature, to which he/she is or shall be made a party by reason of him/her being or having been a Director or Officer of the Corporation (whether or not he/she is a Director or Officer of the Corporation at the time he/she is made party to such action, suit or proceeding, or at the time such cost or expense is incurred by or imposed upon him/her) except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his duties as such Director or Officer. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any such person may now or hereafter be entitled to as a matter of law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee" and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representative of such persons.
