PALMS CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING

Our Corporate Purpose

Our corporate purpose is to raise and help raise money for many different charities using professional wrestling as a platform, we also are working on opening a facility to have our wrestling school, it will teach acting, discipline, self control as well as offer a film school to teach writing, production, pre-production, post-production, the process in putting together a televised wrestling show and much more.

Our facility will have outreach programs for at risk youth, single mothers, teen mothers, abused children, abused and battered woman, and also have tutoring, computer classes, and what we like to call the young business person course, where we teach teens how to manage check books, start their own business from concept to inception, this includes managing a business, hiring personnel, inventory management, scheduling and much more.

Palms Championship Wrestling, Inc. will pride itself in our outreach programs and the work we do with raising money for many charities and causes.
