ARTICLE III. PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized for and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, cultural and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated and rulings made thereunder (the "Code"). The Corporation's purpose shall include, but not be limited to, bringing awareness of and educating children on the danger of cults and providing financial and emotional support to families.

In furtherance thereof, the Corporation may receive property by gift, devise or bequest, invest, and reinvest the same, and apply the income and principal thereof and engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act.

In furtherance of its exclusively charitable purposes, the Corporation shall have all the general powers enumerated in Section 617.0302 of the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended together with the power to solicit grants and contributions for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV. INITIAL DIRECTORS AND/OR OFFICERS

The Corporation shall have at least three directors who shall be elected or appointed as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time, but there shall be at least three (3) directors at all times. All corporate power shall be exercise by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the Directors of the Corporation. The Corporation's Bylaws may provide for members; however the Directors shall have sole voting power.

Tibor Stern
19275 Biscayne Boulevard
Suite 206
Aventura, Florida 33180

ARTICLE VII. REGULATION OF AFFAIRS

Provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation, including provisions for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation are as follows:

A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

B. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise permitted by section 501(h) of the Code), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements concerning) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

C. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not directly or indirectly carry on any activity which would prevent it from obtaining exemption from Federal income taxation as a corporation described in section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or cause it to lose such exempt status, or carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding section of any future tax code).

D. In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the Corporation, all remaining assets and property shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation and for necessary expenses thereof, be distributed to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. In no event shall any of such assets or property be distributed to any director or officer or any private individual.

ARTICLE VIII. EFFECTIVE DATE

The effective date for this Corporation shall be May 3, 2012 and shall have perpetual existence unless it is dissolved pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida and these Articles of Incorporation.

I hereby certify that there are no members entitled to vote on the Amendments to these Restated Articles of Incorporation and that the Amendments to these Restated Articles were adopted on March 26 2013 by the Board of Directors of the Corporation by unanimous vote.
