Article III

It is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, providing transportation services that link children to schools and other educational programs within the communities which enhance their learning experiences, within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

“Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).”

“Upon the winding up and dissolution of this organization, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and the obligations of the organization, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.”
