ARTICLE 4. Members.

The Corporation shall have one or more classes of Members, who shall be admitted in such manner and shall have such rights and privileges as are set forth in the Bylaws. The Corporation shall not issues shares of stock.

ARTICLE 5. Not For Profit.

The Corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The Corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. It is intended that the Corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and which is other than a private foundation as defined in Section 509 of the Code. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. All references in these Articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code or Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in ARTICLE 7. Purposes hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE 6. Duration.

The duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE 7. Purposes.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

More particularly, to conduct programs and activities, sponsor research, sponsor promotions, raise funds, request and receive grants, gifts, contributions, dues and bequests of money, real and personal property; or acquire, receive hold, invest and administer, in its own name, securities, funds, objects of value, or other property, real or personal; and make expenditures and distributions to or for the benefits of the BUREAU OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, Corp.

Three of the specific objectives of the corporation under the previous paragraphs are as follows:

I – is to provide or coordinate a wide variety of programs and services that are structured to meet the social, educational, economic, recreational and other needs of specific ethnic and/or immigrant groups in ways that are culturally appropriate;

II – is to work within the United States and throughout the world to make lasting, positive differences in the lives of disadvantaged children, their families, and their communities, to engage in charitable, scientific, literary, or educational activities;
