Articles of Incorporation
Of
Dark Horse Ministries Incorporated
(a corporation not for profit)

FILED
12 JUN 11 PM 2:25
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Article I - Name

The name of the corporation shall be: Dark Horse Ministries Corporation

Article II - Principal Office

The principal place of business and mailing address of the corporation shall be: 209 Aberdeen Street, Davenport, Fl., 33837

Article III - Duration

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

Article IV - Purpose

The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act of activity for which corporations may be organized under the general Corporation of Law of Florida.

All assets of the corporation shall be principally and directly dedicated exclusively to charitable and educational work. The corporation shall not engage in business activities for profit and no part of any net earnings of the corporation shall benefit any member, director, or officer of the corporation, or any private individual, save and except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, director or officer of the corporation, or private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of secular propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not conduct nor carry on any activities not permitted by an organization exempt under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article V – Membership

This corporation shall not have any capital stock, and the conditions of membership shall be stated in the Bylaws.

Article VI – Initial Registered Office and Registered Agent

The street address of the initial registered office of this corporation is 209 Aberdeen Street, Davenport FL. 33837, and the name of the initial registered agent of this corporation at that address is Matthew Vegter.

Article VII – Initial Board of Directors

The civil activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be such as from time to time shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the Bylaws, but in no case shall the number be less than four. The directors need not be members of the corporation unless so required by the Bylaws. The board of directors shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of the corporation to be held on such date as the Bylaws may provide, and shall hold office until their successors are respectively elected and qualified. The Bylaws shall specify the number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum. The board of directors may, by resolution or resolutions, passed by a majority of the whole board, designate one or more committees, which to the extent provided in said resolution or resolutions or in the Bylaws of the corporation shall have and may exercise all the powers of the board of directors in the management of the activities and affairs of the corporation and may have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it; and such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be stated in the Bylaws of the corporation or may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors. The directors of the corporation may, if the Bylaws so provide, be classified as to term of office. The corporation may elect such officers as the Bylaws may specify, who shall, subject to the provision of the statute, have such titles and exercise such duties as the Bylaws may provide.

The corporation may in its Bylaws confer powers upon its board of directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon them by statute.
