RE: Family Fun Fishing Corp

June 5, 2012

ATT: Dept of Corporations:

Enclosed you will find the incorporating documents for the above nonprofit corporation. Be advised that this is the second time that my office has attempted to file an entity online in the past 3 weeks and, because of an error in your online system, we have been unable to complete our filing. Furthermore, each time that we have followed up on our filing we receive a different answer from the person who answers our call with the steps to follow to complete the filing. Most recently, we sent you documentation which was very specifically requested by your office with regards to a filing and they were returned to us. While we are committed to doing everything required by law and complying with your procedures, this sort of miscommunication is unacceptable and it is prejudicial to the citizens of this state. Apparently the issue within your online system revolves around the email feature of the website wherein it will not accept any of my email addresses for the filing. This is perplexing to me because the email address that I continue to supply (ramoncue@hotmail.com) is my active email for the purposes of my membership in the Florida Bar and it works perfectly with the general public. The wrong information we have received from your associates along with the problem with your online system has caused and continues to cause us hardship, especially since the corporations we have tried to file are for a non-profit charity group that raises funds for underprivileged children.

Upon your receipt of this letter please IMMEDIATELY AND WITHOUT DELAY file this corporation and send us a certificate of status in the SASE FedEx envelope.

I truly hope that this issue is resolved once and for all. As always please call me with any questions.

Very sincerely,

RAMON A. CUE, ESQ.
