The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VIII - LIMITATION OF EXISTENCE

Section 1: No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation effecting one or more of its purposes), and no Director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Corporation assets upon dissolution of the Corporation; provided, however, the Corporation may confer benefits in the form of distributions in dissolution or otherwise, upon any nonprofit corporation described in Section 501 (c) (3) and Section 170 (c) (2) of the code and specified in Section 3 below. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign, (including all publication or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 2: Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by any organization exempt from taxation under section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the code.

Section 3: Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, any assets remaining after paying or making provisions for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious, or scientific purposes which at the time of such disposition, qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3); Section 170 (c)(2), and Section 509(a)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding sections of any future Internal Revenue Code by reason of such organization or organizations providing public services, or to the federal, state, or local government of exclusive public purpose, any assets not so disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for such charitable purposes, or to such organizations organized and operated exclusively for such charitable purposes as said court shall determine.

ARTICLE IX - OFFICERS

Section 1: The officers of the Corporation shall include a President, Vice President and a Secretary/Treasurer. The Corporation may have additional officers, assist officers and agents including without limitation one or more Senior, Assistant or other Vice-Presidents, an Assistant Secretary and/or Treasurer.

Section 2: The officers shall be elected, removed and hold office as provided in the Bylaws.

Section 3: The officers shall have such powers and responsibilities as provided by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE X - INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, MANAGERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS

Section 1: The Corporation shall indemnify against liability to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the provision of Sections 607.0850 and 617.0831, Florida Statutes (or any amendment or successor provision thereof or any other statutory provision authorizing or permitting such indemnification which is adopted after the date this Article is adopted) any person, and his heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives, who is or was a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, manager, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, living venture, trust, or other enterprise at the request of the corporation. Such persons who are entitled to be indemnified shall be paid their expenses in advance of a final disposition of the proceeding to the maximum extent authorized or permitted by the provision of Section 617.1406, Florida Statutes.

Section 2: Article X, Section 1 of these Articles shall not be construed to mean that indemnification by the Corporation pursuant to 617.0831 Florida Statutes is not permitted. The Corporation may indemnify any person pursuant to Section 617.0831, Florida Statutes or any amended or successor section, to the extent and in the manner desired by the corporation and permitted by law.

Section 3: Terms used in these Articles shall have the meanings ascribed to them in 617.01401, Florida Statutes.
