Article Amendment

Article III of the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation is amended to read as follows:

The specific purpose of this corporation is to provide a program that unlocks Jacksonville youth's hidden potential and empower them to achieve lifelong success by equipping them with life's necessary tools through nurture and experiences. We will provide a learning center where students can participate in enrichment activities; build relationships with peers and work on academic goals through hands-on education and job training. This corporation will provide assistance to underprivileged, low income, mistreated, and maladjusted children, youths, and young adults by offering mentoring and encouragement, through sponsoring educational programs, professional training, mentoring, advocacy, and supportive services that help uplift the entire community. The key objective is to strengthen our community through development, leadership, cooperative learning, elevating self-esteem and fostering multi-cultural exchange. Our program will provide early education aid for underprivileged children who have been excluded from the traditional pathways to career formation and advancement by protracted poverty. Our program will work with life management, social skills, and literacy for low-income youth that are underserved, handicapped, under privileged, disenfranchised and disadvantaged. The Corporation is to offer services that empower each youth with knowledge and resources to achieve greater self-identity, academic excellence, community involvement and balanced living. Our program gives the youth in our community a place to come and learn to deal and overcome life's challenges by introducing principles and skills that will increase confidence and intellectual capabilities. The target group will comprise of children, youth and young adults to help to combat illiteracy prevention, poverty, violence, gang activity, and homelessness prevention. The work of the Corporation will demonstrate that families working together are a powerful force for improving their communities and making real change. We understand that there is no more valuable resource in the world than our children. Our program will also offer teaching, training and technical assistance to young adults by providing economic job skills, mentoring, tutoring, economic literacy, violence prevention, computer literacy, and crisis counseling for the youth and the disadvantaged. Our program will be focus on assisting the youth with their education /after school enrichment programs in all areas. The program will focus on literacy research, rehabilitation, outreach activities, crisis counseling education, self sufficiency values, pre-employment training for young adults, along with general anti-hunger and mental depression programs. The Corporation will require community participation to help with the development of our young adult program, and to rebuild the infrastructure in the community. We are dedicated to providing the opportunities and resources to underprivileged individuals to keep them off the street, promote higher education, develop creativity and provide the tools for people to be afforded with the means to make positive change in their lives. The objective of the program is to improve self-sufficiency measures of good citizenship, personal accountability, and serve as a vessel for participants to utilize and develop skills that will help them grow into dynamic and successful members in society. Our program provides positive structures children, and are designed to have performance indicators and measurable outcomes; with leadership development services in all categories.
