FILED
SECRETARY OF STATE
DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS
JUN 29 PM 3:07

The undersigned, for the purpose of forming a Florida not-for-profit corporation makes and adopts the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 1

Name

The name of the corporation is Bellevue High School Volleyball Booster Club, Inc.

ARTICLE 2

Address

The address of the principal office and the initial mailing address of the corporation is: 10400 Southeast 36th Avenue, Bellevue, Florida, 34420.

ARTICLE 3:

Duration

The corporation shall exist perpetually.

ARTICLE 4

Members

The corporation shall have one class of members but shall not issue membership certificates nor shares of stock.

ARTICLE 5

Not for Profit

The corporation is a not for profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under law and under 26 USCA subsection 501(c)(3). No member shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the corporation and no part of the assets of the corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 USCA subsection 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE 6

Purpose

The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively to promote volleyball at Bellevue High School, including but not limited to, sponsoring, organizing, administering, enhancing and supporting events which foster and stimulate volleyball and the volleyball program at Bellevue High School.

ARTICLE 7

Powers

Solely for the above purposes, the corporation shall have the following powers:

A. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to, those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617, and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.

B. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which non-profit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

C. To exercise all powers and privileges as set forth in the Bylaws, and to do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE 8

Limitation

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors or officers, employee or other individual, partnership, estate, trust or corporation having a personal or private interest in the corporation. The corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 6 of these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 9

Tax Exempt Status

A. It is intended that the corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a corporation that is exempt from federal income taxation, 26 USCA(a) as an organization described in 26 USCA subsection 501(c)(3). These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the corporation shall be limited accordingly.

B. No substantial amount of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and this organization shall not intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

C. The corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent as would result in the loss of exemption under 26 USCA subsection 501(c)(3). All references in these Articles of Incorporation as to sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986, as amended from time to time, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

ARTICLE 10

Dissolution

On the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the Board of Directors shall determine, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any of the assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for the above purposes of the corporation or to a qualified organization or organizations as the court shall determine. For purposes of this Article, an organization is a "qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving the assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in 26 USCA subsection 170(c)(1) or 26 USCA subsection 170(c)(2)(B) and is described in 26 USCA subsection 509(a)(1), (2), or (3), or any corresponding sections of any future Federal Tax Code.

ARTICLE 11

Board of Directors

There shall be a Board of Directors consisting of at least three individuals. The Directors shall be elected and removed in the manner and at the times set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE 12

Officers

The Officers of the corporation may consist of a President, Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and any other officers and assistant officers as may be provided for in the Bylaws or by resolution of the Board of Directors. Each Officer shall be elected at such a time and in such a manner as may be prescribed by the Bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE 13
