ARTICLE III

Purpose

The purpose for which this corporation is formed is exclusively charitable, educational, literary and scientific and consists of the following:

This corporation is formed exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law, more specifically to aid, support, and assist by gifts, contributions, or otherwise. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private share holder or individual, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for the services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause thereof.

To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or in cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, association, trusts, institution, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

All of the foregoing purposes shall be exercised exclusively charitable and educational purposes in such a manner that the corporation will qualify as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE IV

Manner of Election

The qualifications for members and the manner of their admission shall be through a nomination and election process with the majority vote. Nominees will be at the recommendation of the Board of Directors and Executive Director collaboratively. Future and/or end of tenure vacancies shall be filled in the aforementioned manner and shall be regulated by the by-laws which will be adapted at the initial board meeting. Members shall serve on the board for a period of three (3) Years for a (3) three Year term commencing in the fiscal year, beginning October 1, 2011.
