ARTICLE III PURPOSE

This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation and is organized exclusively for educational, charitable, and religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Certificate, this corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under IRC 501(c)(3) or any corresponding provisions of the subsequent tax laws.

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation), and no member, trustee or officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporation's assets on dissolution of the corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by IRC 501(h)) or participating in, or intervening in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidates for public office.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. The corporation shall not have any capital stock and the conditions of membership shall be stated in the By-laws. The corporation shall expend all of its available resources in the furtherance of its benevolent goals, and has no intention to earn a profit for its members, directors or officers. This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation and will not issue stock, or distribute dividends or other shares of its income or earnings to any individual associated with the corporation.

This corporation is organized pursuant to Title 8, Chapter 1, et seq., and is intended to qualify as a tax exempt corporation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law ("Code"), and it shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes. The results of all corporate activity shall be made available to the public on a non-discriminatory basis and shall not inure to the benefit of any shareholders, directors or officers of the corporation. In connection with the foregoing, the corporation may generally perform any act, which is incidental and necessary to the objects, and purposes set forth herein.

TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Without limitation of the foregoing, the corporation may own, lease, acquire (by deed, devise, bequest, gift purchase or otherwise), manage and dispose of real and personal property, hold and invest funds and intangible property, raise money by any appropriate activity, accept donations and make donations to other organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) or 170(c)(2) of the Code whenever, in the opinion of the board, such donations will foster the purposes hereinabove set forth.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

The business, property and affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be chosen by the members, but the Board will have the power to fill vacancies therein caused by death, resignation or otherwise, and to increase its own membership by electing additional directors to serve until the next meeting of the members. The Board of Directors, if the by-laws so provide, may designate two or more directors to be an Executive Committee, which committee shall, to the extent provided for in the resolution creating it, possess and exercise all the powers of the Board of Directors including the power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to documents and papers which may require it. The Board, at its discretion, may convey various advisory powers to help in reaching certain decisions.

This corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now prescribed by law or in any manner that hereafter may be prescribed by law, and all rights conferred on officers, directors, and members herein are granted subject to this reservation.
