- 1.) Your Articles of Incorporation do not limit your purposes to those specifically described in IRC section 501(c)(3) or permanently dedicate your assets to purposes specifically described in section 501(c)(3). This is a requirement for federal tax exemption purposes under 501(c)(3). Therefore, please amend your Articles of Incorporation by filing an Articles of Amendment to include the following language:

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

To amend your Articles of Incorporation, please file the Amendment to include the above language with the state department where you were incorporated. You must submit a complete copy of the Amendment that shows proof it was filed by the state. Please note we cannot accept a copy that only indicates it was received by or submitted to the state.

For further information on how to file an Amendment to your Articles of Incorporation, you may wish to contact the state department where your Articles of Incorporation were filed.
