The Board of Youth and Community Outreach, Inc has removed Helmi El Agha and his wife Wafaa AlKhateeb and the accountant Hasan Baig from the corporation on November 8th 2024.

The Board understand this is a significant decision, and we want to explain as follows:

The former Board Members acted as President and Vice President, their continued presence on the board is detrimental to the organization for the following reasons.

- Misuse of Donated Funds for personal use
- Insulted, threatened and trespassed community members
- Refused to cooperate with the community
- Embezzlement and racketeering
- Personal conflict of interest
- Mislead the community and revoked worshippers' rights with lack of accountability
- Abandoned the property and failed to pay mortgage, bills, and expenses
- Abandoned the community for self-interest and personal purpose
- Made decisions without consulting other members of the board or the community
- Mismanagement of school funds. Co-mingled with personal finance causes a severe breach of trust

Our organization needs to maintain high integrity, professionalism, and dedication to our mission. The actions and behaviors exhibited by former board members have raised concerns among other board members, staff, and stakeholders, which may ultimately harm our organization's reputation and effectiveness.

The board of directors initiated the necessary procedures to address this matter and removed Mr. Helmi El Agha and Your Wife Wafaa Al Khateeb and accountant Hasan Baig from the corporation after community vote.
