ARTICLE I - NAME

Section 1 - Name: The name of this corporation shall be Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II - PRINCIPLE OFFICE

Section 1 - Corporate Address: The principle street address, located in Pinellas County, is:

5661 Dunfries St N
St. Petersburg, FL 33709

The principle mailing address is:

5661 Dunfries St N
St. Petersburg, FL 33709

The Corporation may maintain additional offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may designate. Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. shall continuously maintain with the state of Florida a registered office at such place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II - DURATION

Section 1 - Duration: The duration of Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. is perpetual, unless otherwise stated.

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

Section 1 - Purpose: Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit corporation and shall operate exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. Such purposes include but are not limited to:

- a) inspire and prepare today's at-risk youth into the next generation of society's leaders for their future roles.
- b) use sports as a "catalyst" to give at-risk youth from age 7 to age 18 an opportunity at developing their natural leadership potential through year-round sports camps, AAU, and other sporting events.
- c) involve teaching young people valuable life skills associated with leadership, particularly those that promote teamwork, self-confidence, character, respect, and perseverance in a safe, non-threatening environment. A concentrated effort is made to apprise young people the importance of ethics in both personal and public life through Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. mentorship.

d) include developing relationships with professional athletic teams for sponsorships, holding various fundraising events in order to purchase equipment, shoes, etc., and going to various schools and recreational centers to raise awareness of our purpose.

e) include working relationships with Judeo-Christian ministries whose goal is to preserve and promote traditional virtues and values.

f) prevent community deterioration and improve the welfare of the disadvantaged by providing at-risk youth organized programs and away from "negative recreation" (drugs, violence or sexual activities).

To maximize our impact on current efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations which fall under the 501(c) (3) section of the internal revenue code and are operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes.

At times, per the discretion of the Board of Directors, we may provide internships or volunteer opportunities which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and programs in order to have a greater impact for change.

Section 2 – Public Benefit: Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. is designated as a public benefit corporation.

ARTICLE IV – LIMITATIONS

Section 1 – Non-profit Nature: Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its educational, religious, and charitable purposes. No part of the directors, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

Section 2 – Personal Liability: The members of the Board of Directors shall not be liable to Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. for the debts, obligations, or monetary damages arising out of any action, whether by or in the right of the corporation or otherwise, for any breach of duty as a member, officer, trustee or director, except for liability with respect to: (1) the best interests of the corporation, (2) any transaction from which such director derived an improper personal financial benefit, and (3) act or omissions prior to the date the Articles are effective. Also, as used herein, the term "improper personal benefit" does not include a director's reasonable compensation or other incidental benefit for or on an account of service as an employee, independent contractor, attorney or consultant of the corporation.

Section 3 – Prohibited Distributions: No part of the net earnings, properties of the directors of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the bylaws.

Section 4 – Prohibited Activities: Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE V – DEDICATION OF ASSETS

Section 1 – Dissolution: In the event of its dissolution, Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc., after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, shall distribute any assets lawfully available for distribution to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the corporation and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the corporation by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within Florida.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Florida to be added to the general fund.

ARTICLE VI- BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 – Governance: Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. shall be governed by its Board of Directors.

Section 2 – Election: The Corporation shall designate a Board of Directors who shall initially be appointed a majority of the incorporators to serve as directors of the corporation until such Director's death, resignation, or removal as stated in the bylaws.

Section 3 – Initial Directors: The initial directors shall be Travis Hill, President, Kathleen Hill, Vice-President, Bonnie Hill, Secretary and Treasurer.

ARTICLE VII - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 – Membership: Community Youth Leadership Foundation, Inc. shall have no members. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the corporation's bylaws.
