PURPOSES

A. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific and literary opportunities and purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for scientific, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or such corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter referred to as the "Code"). To the extent consistent with the preceding sentence and permissible under Florida law, the purposes of this Corporation shall include, but shall not be limited to: provide charitable, education, scientific and/or literary opportunities to the youth of Central Florida, and the surrounding communities; and to provide education in a private school setting.

B. This Corporation shall be authorized to carry out any and all acts and to exercise any and all corporate powers which may now or hereafter be lawful under the laws of the State of Florida to the extent applicable to corporations not for profit and that are not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation.

C. Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the following provisions shall apply:

1. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in this Article III.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including publishing or distributing statements) on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section (c)(3) of the code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
4. If the Corporation is, or shall ever be, classified as a "private foundation", as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code, the following provisions shall apply for so long as it remains a private foundation:
 - (i) The Corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code.
 - (ii) The Corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code.
 - (iii) The Corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code.
 - (iv) The Corporation will not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code.
 - (v) The Corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

The Corporation shall have all the rights and powers customary and proper for tax-exempt not for profit corporations, including the powers specifically enumerated in section 617.0302 of the Florida Statute as amended. The Corporation shall have the power to hold or administer property for the purpose stated in this Article, including the power to act as trustee, subject to the restrictions pertaining to the ownership of real property set forth in the Book of Church Order.
