Physical Street Address: 1198 Siesta Key Circle, Port Orange, FL 32128

Article III

- (a) The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and religious-educational purposes. The primary purpose of this corporation is to establish a church for religious purposes in order to
- (1) minister to the total life of all people by preaching, teaching, and proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God
  - (2) encourage Christians to live their faith in accordance with God's Holy Word
  - (3) carry out God's work on earth
- (b) In furtherance of the foregoing purpose, this corporation may take by gift or otherwise acquire, buy, hold, own, develop, sell, convey, lease, mortgage, exchange, improve and dispose of property of whatsoever nature, including real property and personal property; make and perform contracts, execute and deliver such documents, releases, acquittances, or other writings as may be necessary to effect any purpose for which the corporation is formed. It can also issue, sell, and deliver its notes, bonds, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness, which may or may not be secured by mortgage or trust deed on any property that the corporation may be permitted by law to encumber. In general, the corporation is empowered to perform those acts that are necessary to the performance of any of the powers hereinabove specifically delegated or implied and permitted by law. The corporation shall operate in all matters for religious, charitable, and/or general educational purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any applicable Internal Revenue Law) as amended, or under any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws covering the distribution to an organization qualified as a tax exempt organization under the IRS Code.
- (c) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III(a) hereof.
- (d) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Article IV

The temporal, financial, and business affairs of this corporation, and all affairs concerning its property, pecuniary obligations and business dealings, shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Directors, subject to review and approval by the elders. The number of directors of this corporation shall be as established from time to time in the bylaws, but in no event shall be less than three. The directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the corporation as defined by process in the by-laws of the corporation. Until otherwise established in the bylaws, the number of directors of this corporation shall be three. The names and addresses of the persons elected by the members of the corporation to act as the initial directors of this corporation, until the selection of their successors, are as follows:

(1)

Charlie Cobb
1198 Siesta Key Circle
Port Orange, FL 32128
