purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Certificate, if at any time or times the Corporation is a private foundation within the meaning of Code Section 509, then during such time or times:

- (1)The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Code Section 4941(d) or the corresponding section of any future tax code;
- (2)The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the Corporation to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Code Section 4942 or the corresponding section of any future tax code;
- (3)The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Code Section 4943(c) or the corresponding section of any future tax code ;
- (4)The Corporation shall not make any investments in such a manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Code Section 4944 or the corresponding section of any future tax code; and
- (5)The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d) or the corresponding section of any future tax code.
