Same Not Amended

ARTICLE IV
Purposes

Section 1.

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Corporation may receive and administer funds for scientific, religious, educational, and charitable purposes, within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to that end, the Corporation is empowered to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to the amount or value, to dispose of any such property to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the by-laws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws, to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for pecuniary profit of financial gain of its directors or officers except as permitted under the Not-for-profit Corporation Law.

Section 2.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall be insured to the benefit of any member, trustee, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual except that reasonable compensation may be paid for service rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes, and no member, trustee, officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets in dissolution of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall participate in or intervene in, the publication or distribution of statements, of any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 3.

Upon dissolution of the Corporation or winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation shall be distributed exclusively to one or more charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary or educational organization which then qualify under the Provisions of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter amended, or to the federal government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organization as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V Territory

The territory in which the operations of the Corporation are principally to be conducted is the United States of America and its territories and possessions, but the operations of the Corporations shall not be limited to such territory.

ARTICLE VI Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a Corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law or (b) a Corporation's contributions which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or any other corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE VII Qualifications for Directors

The qualifications for Directors and the manner of their admissions shall be regulated by the by-laws.
