ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is formed and the business and the objects to be carried on and promoted by it are as follows:

1. The purposes for which the corporation is organized are to receive and maintain real or personal property, or both and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income there from and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary, or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that

- qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
2. To provide medical care to underserved children in the Miami Dade County area and from time to time selected areas throughout the State of Florida.
 3. To erect and maintain a building or buildings for the above purpose and engage in any operation incidental and essential to carry out the purposes above mentioned.
 4. To solicit funds and donations in kind and from time to time to further the purposes of this corporation.
 5. To acquire and receive by purchase, donation or otherwise property, real, personal, or mixed and to hold, use and dispose of the same.
 6. To borrow money and to issue evidences of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all objects of its business; and to secure loans by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien.
 7. To apply for, obtain and contract with any federal, state, or local government or agency for a direct loan or loans or other financial aid in the form of grants or otherwise relating to the purposes of this corporation.
 8. To engage in any kind of activity, and to enter into, perform and carry out contracts of any kind necessary or in connection with or incidental to the accomplishment of any one or more of the non-profit purposes of the corporation.
 9. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any Director or Officer of the corporation or any member of the corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no Director or Officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
 10. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by and organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (C) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code and said Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

11. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, The Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Miami-Dade County, Florida in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said script shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
12. The corporation shall have such powers as are conferred upon it by Chapter 617 of the Laws of the State of Florida, and to exercise those powers in the accomplishments of its objects and purposes.
13. The By-Laws may impose other conditions of membership from time to time.
