ARTICLE III:

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to provide housing opportunities for veterans, disabled individuals, and low-income families, and to operate exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, as amended.

Incremental Income. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

Legislative or Political Activities. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in, including the publishing or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Operational Limitations. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities that are not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor activities of corporations the contributions to which are not deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Income and Asset Limitation. The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of the organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.

Dissolution. Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute the remaining assets of the Corporation exclusively for the like purposes of the Corporation in such manner or to such organization or organizations organized or operated exclusively for charitable purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue law as the Board of Directors shall determine.
