NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

A. This corporation is formed not involving pecuniary gain its members, does not pay dividends or other pecuniary remuneration, directly or indirectly to its members, and has no capital stock. The corporation will not afford pecuniary gain incidentally or otherwise to its members.

B. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Three hereof.

C. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

E. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable, educational or scientific purposes. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all assets of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations as the Board of Directors determine, to be in conjunction with the purposes of the corporation, provided that such organizations are organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501©(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal revenue law; and if such organization or its successor does not qualify, then the Board of Directors shall distribute the portion of such assets that would have gone to the disqualified organization for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501 ©(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by the District court of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations that said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

F. The directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENT

These articles may be amended in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of applicable Florida law at any regular or special meeting of the Directors by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Directors present, provided that before they be amended by regular or special meeting of the Directors, the specific amendment to be proposed shall be stated In the call for the regular or special meeting.
