ARTICLE V
RESTRICTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

(1) Notwithstanding any other statements to the contrary, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of its primary purposes set forth in this Certificate. The Corporation may not take any action prohibited by the Florida Business Organizations Code.

(2) The Corporation is not organized nor shall it be operated for the primary purpose of generating pecuniary gain or profit. The Corporation may not pay dividends or other corporate income to its directors or officers, otherwise accrue distributable profits, or permit the realization of private gain. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director of the Corporation, officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

(3) 501(c)(3) Limitations: Notwithstanding any other provision of this Certificate of Formation, the Corporation may not take action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for tax exemption under the Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3), and related regulations, rulings, and procedures. Nor may it take any action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for receiving tax-deductible charitable contributions under the Internal Revenue Code, Section 170(c)(2), and related regulations, rulings, and procedures. Regardless of any other provision in the Certificate of Formation or state law, the Corporation may not:

- (a) Engage in activities or use its assets in manners that do not further one or more exempt purposes, as set forth in these Articles and defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures, except to an insubstantial degree.
- (b) Serve a private interest other than one clearly incidental to an overriding public interest.
- (c) Devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except as provided by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures.
- (d) Participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements and any other direct or indirect campaign activities) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. The prohibited activities include publishing or distributing statements and any other direct or indirect campaign activities.
- (e) Have objectives characterizing it as an "action organization" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures.
- (f) Distribute its assets on dissolution other than for one or more exempt

(4) Termination: Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all the remaining assets of the Corporation only for tax-exempt purposes to such eligible organization or organizations (as hereinafter defined) as the board of directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the District Court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such eligible organization or organizations as said court shall determine. For purposes of this article, "eligible organization or organizations" refers to any organization or organizations that are tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, or described by Section 170(c)(1) or (2), Internal Revenue Code, as the board of directors shall determine.

(5) The Corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and agents to the fullest extent permitted by law.
