We received your electronically transmitted document. However, the document has not been filed. Please make the following corrections and refax the complete document, including the electronic filing cover sheet.

The complete document was not received. Please refax the complete document, including the electronic filing cover sheet.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6052.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

THE MURRAY AND BARBARA GROSS FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC

The undersigned hereby makes and subscribes to these Articles of Incorporation intending to form a not-for-profit corporation under the provisions of the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of this corporation is THE MURRAY AND BARBARA GROSS FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSES AND POWERS

The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary, and educational within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. The objects and purposes of the corporation and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are as follows:

(a) To receive, maintain, and administer a fund of real and personal property, derived from all sources whatsoever, and subject to the terms of any specific gift, grant, bequest, or devise and to the restrictions set forth below, to use, apply, and distribute the income from and the principal of such a fund exclusively for charitable purposes;

(b) To receive any property, real personal or mixed, under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the purposes of the Corporation, and in administering the same to carry out the directions, and exercise the powers contained in the instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income for one or more of such purposes, if authorized or directed in the instrument under which it is received, but no gift, bequest or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it be conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organization other than a "charitable organization" or for other than "charitable purposes", or as shall in the opinion of the Board of Directors jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of the Corporation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the code;

(c) To do and engage in all lawful activities that further or are consistent with the preceding objects and purposes of the corporation;

H120002814633

(d) In furtherance of the preceding objects and purposes, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all of the rights, powers, privileges, and immunities now or subsequently conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized under the laws of the State of Florida.

The corporations may carry out the purposes hereinabove set forth in any state, territory, district, possession, dependency or other political subdivision of the United States of America, or in any foreign country, to the extent that such purposes are not forbidden by the law of such state, territory, district, possession, dependency or political subdivision of the United States of America or by such foreign country.

ARTICLE III EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have a perpetual existence. The corporate existence will commence upon the filing of these Articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERSHIP

(a) The regular members of the Corporation shall consist of the Directors of THE MURRAY AND BARBARA GROSS FAMILY FOUNDATION, INC. Election of a Director pursuant to Article VII (a) hereof shall constitute election of said individual as a regular member, and termination of a Director for any reason shall constitute termination as a Regular Member hereunder.

(b) There shall be such honorary members, if any, as the By-laws shall authorize. No honorary member shall be entitled to participate in the affairs of the Corporation, and in no event shall honorary membership in this Corporation vest any interest in the assets of the Corporation in any such honorary member.

ARTICLE V LIMITATIONS

(a) Other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, notwithstanding, the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provision of any United States Internal Revenue law; nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, nor make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(b) The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner so as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(c) The Corporation will not make any investments in a manner that would subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

(d) This Corporation shall not, as a substantial part of its activities, carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene (by publication or distribution of any statements or otherwise) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(e) In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of the organization will be turned over to no less than three (3) or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or to the federal, state, or local government for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of in the circuit court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes. The period of dissolution if permitted by law, shall be sixty (60) months from the date of occurrence of the determination to dissolve or dissolution by operation of law.

(f) No part of the income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no member, trustee, director or officer of the Corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

ARTICLE VII
MANAGEMENT

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Officers pursuant to the direction of the Board of Directors.

(a) Board of Directors. The powers of this Corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors. The number of Directors of this Corporation shall initially consist of three, provided, however, that such number may be changed in accordance with the By-laws, and the number of Directors shall never be less than three (3).

The Board of Directors shall be a self-perpetuating body and shall be elected and shall serve for such terms and until such time as shall be set forth in the By-laws. In the event any vacancies shall occur because of death, resignation, incapacity to act, or removal of a Director, the then remaining Directors shall, within a reasonable time, fill the vacancy or vacancies. If in the event the vacancy is created by resignation, the resigning Director shall have the authority to nominate a replacement Director. The appointment shall be subject to majority approval by the Board of Directors.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law, the Articles of Incorporation or By-laws may be taken without a meeting if the total Board of Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action; such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors, and any such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors.
