Article III – Purpose

Chai Care, Inc. has been organized exclusively for charitable and religious purposes within the meaning of IRC 501(c)(3). Our goal is to provide a caring, supportive, advocacy network for financially independent individuals who do not have family or a support network able to help them adjust to changes in their lives and cope with issues and problems that arise as they age. To provide an individualized, personal plan that will strengthen the donor's quality of life with dignity. Offer peace of mind to the donor and facilitate the donor's independence for as long as possible, without jeopardizing their health and safety. Also to proactively assess, advocate and coordinate a donor's personal healthcare, safety and social needs.
