Re: Dade Lacrosse, Inc. Corporate Name

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that as an Officer and Director of Dade Lacrosse, Inc. and with authorization of the Board of Directors I hereby authorize the immediate use of the Corporate Name of "Dade Lacrosse, Inc." by any new incorporators. Dade Lacrosse, Inc. was filed under document number: N09000006962 and was voluntarily dissolved on 12/14/2012. A new entity has attached their Articles of Incorporation selecting the same name as the corporation recently dissolved. I hereby authorize the use of said name waiving the statutory waiting period for the Corporate Name to become available again.

Sincerely,

Chazz Woodson
Officer/Director

The undersigned acting as incorporators of a corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, as amended, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE ONE:

Name

The name of the Corporation shall be DADE LACROSSE, INC., hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation".

ARTICLE TWO:

Principle Office and Address

The principal place of business of this Corporation shall be 530 SW 10th Street, Unit 1, Miami, Florida 33130 and mailing address of this Corporation shall be the same.

ARTICLE THREE:

Duration & Existence

The term of existence of the Corporation is perpetual; and the corporate existence will commence on the day of the filing of these articles by the Department of State.

ARTICLE FOUR:

Purpose

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The Corporation is formed for such charitable purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Corporation shall be organized and operated in the public interest, not for the benefit of designated persons or its founders, and will not, except to an insubstantial amount, engage in activities that do not further this organization's exempt purposes. Such purposes shall include but shall not be limited to providing financial support, by way of grants, contributions, loans or otherwise, to other organizations exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

All references herein: (i) to the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or hereafter amended; and (ii) to particular sections of the Internal revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to similar or successor provisions hereafter adopted.

ARTICLE FIVE:

Powers

Without in any way limiting the foregoing, the Corporation shall have those powers granted by Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes.

The Corporation shall be a not-for-profit corporation and shall have no authority to issue capital stock.

The Corporation shall not be a membership corporation.

ARTICLE SIX:

Limitation on Powers

No part of the assets of the Corporation and no part of any net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in any political campaign of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation or the by-laws of the Corporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE SEVEN:

Distribution of Assets

Upon dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principle office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purpose.

ARTICLE EIGHT:

Directors

A Board of Directors having at least 3 Directors shall manage the affairs and business of the Corporation. The directors and officers of the Corporation, terms of office, method of selection, respective duties, and all things pertaining thereto, are defined and established by the by-laws of the Corporation.

The name and address of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors until the first election of the directors pursuant to the by-laws of the Corporation are:
