Articles of Incorporation

for

EFFECTIVE DATE 02/08/13

Naturally You, Inc.

In compliance with the requirements of Florida Statutes, Chapter 617 (1993), the undersigned Incorporator has executed, adopted and caused to be delivered for filing the Articles of Incorporation for the purposes of forming a not-for-profit corporation and does hereby certify:

Article I: Name

The name of the corporation shall be Naturally You, Inc.

Article II: Principle Office

The principle place of business and mailing addresses are:

- Physical: 706 N Main Street Kissimmee FL 34744
- Mailing: 706 N Main Street Kissimmee FL 34744

Article III: Purpose

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to be operated exclusively for charitable, educational, and or scientific purposes and to engage in such other pursuits as to qualify it as an exempt organization under Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax law. More specifically, this corporation shall:

- A. Operate exclusively as a not-for-profit, charitable organization primarily engaged in providing educational opportunities to stylists and naturals on natural hair care – to preserve the natural hair.
- B. Vision: Knowledgeable stylists of the natural hair meeting client needs with appropriate services.

- C. Mission: To provide educational opportunities to stylists and naturals on natural hair care.
- D. Motto: Healthy natural hair comes from a healthy natural life style.
- E. Slogan: Preserving the natural hair.
- F. Coined Phrase: Embracing the natural.

Article IV: Duration

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual unless terminated sooner in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

Article V: Bylaws

The directors of this corporation shall provide such Bylaws for the conduct of the business of the corporation and the carrying out of its purposes as such directors may deem necessary from time-to-time. Upon notice properly given, the Bylaws may be amended, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of the members present at any regular or special meeting called for such purpose subject to any limitation set forth in Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, or any other applicable state or federal law concerning corporate action that must be authorized or approved by member of the corporation.

Article VI: Powers

This corporation is empowered to:

- A. Exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not-for-profit corporations including, but without limitation thereon, to receive gifts, devises, bequests, and contributions in any form and to use, apply, invest, and reinvest the principal and income there-from and distribute the same for the aforementioned purposes.

- B. To acquire by gift or purchase, hold, sell, convey, assign, mortgage or lease any property, real or personal, necessary, or incident to the purposes of this corporation.
- C. To borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of its purposes and to secure loans by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, or other lien.
- D. To apply for, obtain, and contract with any federal, state, or local agency for a direct loan or loans or other financial aid.
- E. To engage in any kind of activity, and to enter into, perform, and carry out contracts of any kind necessary, in connection with, or incidental to the accomplishment of any one or more of the not-for-profit purposes of this corporation.

Article VII: Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, this corporation will not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or a corporation to which contributions are deductible under Section 170(C)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

Article VIII: Manner of Election and Initial Board of Directors

The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its properties controlled, and its affairs conducted and managed by the final decision making body known as the Board of Directors. The directors shall be elected or appointed in such manner as provided by the Articles of Incorporation until such time that the Bylaws shall be completed and adopted. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time-to-time in the manner provided in the Bylaws but shall never be less than three. Any director shall be removed from office with or without cause by the vote or agreement in writing by a majority of all the membership as more specifically set forth in the Bylaws.

The founding director ("Founder") shall remain as a life director (until death) with all veto power, for such votes, amendments, and activities that directly violate the stated purpose, prohibited activities, and powers of this corporation. The corporation will at all times maintain a Chairman and a Secretary.

A. The following directors shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified:

Article X: Indemnification

Every person who now is or hereafter shall be a director or officer of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by law. Every person who now is or hereafter shall be a member of the corporation is not personally liable for any act, debt, liability, or obligation of the corporation. A member may become liable to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees as provided by any applicable state and federal laws.

Article XI: Dedication and Distribution of Assets

No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall be distributed to, or inure to the benefit of, any member, director or officer of this corporation, contributor or private individual. No loans, other than through the purchase of bonds, debentures, or similar obligations of the type customarily sold in public offerings, or through ordinary deposit of funds in a bank, may be made by the corporation to its directors, or officers, or to any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one of more of its directors or officers is a director or officer or holds a substantial financial interest, except a loan by one corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, to another corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Article XII: Amendment to Articles of Incorporation

An amendment to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by any director of the corporation, but such amendment may be adopted after receiving an affirmative vote of the majority of the members entitled to vote on proposed amendments to the Articles of Incorporation. If no members are entitled to vote on such proposal, the amendment may be adopted at a meeting of the directors by a majority vote of the directors.

Article XIII: Dissolution

In the event of dissolution, winding up, or other liquidation of the assets of this corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes, within the meaning of section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
