ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE SKEETERHAWK EXPERIMENT, INC.
(A Corporation Non For Profit)

FILED
13 MAR 26 PM 12:01
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation is THE SKEETERHAWK EXPERIMENT, INC.

ARTICLE II

Duration

The period of the corporation's duration is perpetual.

ARTICLE III

Corporation Non For Profit and Charitable Purposes

The corporation shall be a corporation not for profit under applicable provisions of Florida law. It shall be organized, and at all time thereafter operated, exclusively for public charitable uses and purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, all with a view toward preventing and reducing the misuse and abuse of prescription drugs and the harm and overdoses related thereto. The charitable purposes of the corporation shall be carried out in such ways as the Board of Directors of the corporation shall determine in its discretion. In furtherance of such purposes, the corporation shall have full power and authority:

- (a) To make distributions for charitable purposes;
- (b) To receive and accept property, whether real, personal, or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, or devise, from any person, firm, trust, corporation, or other organization or entity, to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with and pursuant to the governing instruments of the corporation, as the same may be amended from time to time; and
- (c) To perform all other acts necessary or incidental to the above and to do whatever is deemed necessary, useful, advisable, or conducive, directly or indirectly, as determined by the Board of Directors in its discretion, to carry out any of the purposes of the corporation, as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation, including the exercise of all other power and authority enjoyed by corporations generally by virtue of applicable provisions of Florida law, including the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act (within and subject to the limitations of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code).

The corporation shall serve only such purposes and functions and shall engage only in such activities as are consistent with the purposes set forth in this Article III and as are exclusively charitable and are entitled to charitable status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE IV

Tax-Exempt Nonprofit Corporation

The corporation shall be neither organized nor operated for pecuniary gain or profit.

- (a) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any member, trustee, officer, or director of the corporation, or any other private person; but the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as set forth in Article III hereof.
- (b) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code), and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
- (c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:
 - (i) By a corporation exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
 - (ii) By a corporation, contributions to which are deductible for federal income tax purposes under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

It is intended that the corporation shall have, and continue to have, the status of an organization which is exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. All terms and provisions of these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the corporation, and all authority and operations of the corporation, shall be construed, applied and carried out in accordance with such intent.

ARTICLE V

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall have general charge of the affairs and any property and assets of the corporation. It shall be the duty of the directors to carry out the purposes and functions of the corporation. The directors shall be elected in accordance with the Bylaws of the corporation and shall have the powers and duties set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and in the Bylaws, to the extent that such powers and duties are not inconsistent with the status of the corporation as a nonprofit corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VI

Dissolution of Corporation

Upon dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation by distributing those assets exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for public charitable uses and purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VII

Registered Office and Registered Agent

The address of the initial registered office of the corporation is 1405 Fryston Street, Saint Johns, Florida 32259. The initial registered agent of the corporation at such address shall be Kelly M. Corredor.

ARTICLE VIII

Principal Office

The mailing address of the initial principal office of the corporation is 1405 Fryston Street, Saint Johns, Florida 32259.

Article IX

Definitions

For purposes of these Articles of Incorporation, "charitable purposes" include charitable, religious, educational, literary, or scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, contributions for which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future United States Internal Revenue Law, and to all regulations issued under such sections and provisions.

ARTICLE X

Limitation of Director Liability

(a) A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members or to any other person for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director, or for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporation management or policy, regardless of when such breach, statement, vote, decision, or failure to act may have occurred, except to the extent that exculpation from liability is not permitted under Florida law as in effect at the time such liability is determined.

(b) Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a director of the corporation with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the effective date of such repeal or modification.

(c) If Florida law hereafter is amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended Florida law.

(d) In the event that any of the provisions of this Article (including any provision within a single sentence) are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or otherwise unenforceable, the remaining provisions are severable and shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XI

Incorporator

The name and address of the Incorporator are as follows:

Kelly M. Corredor
1405 Fryston Street
Saint Johns, Florida 32259

ARTICLE XII

Amendments

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time and from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of all of the directors then in office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation, this 25th day of March 2013.

KELLY M. CORREDOR
Incorporator

Having been named as registered agent to accept service of process for the above stated corporation at the place designated in this certificate, I am familiar with and accept the appointment as registered agent and agree to act in this capacity.
