ARTICLE III

This corporation is a beacon of hope, dedicated to spreading the word of God with honesty and integrity.

Our mission is to share the divine message and operate solely for religious purposes under the State of Florida and Federal laws. We are committed to upholding ethical principles and will not engage in any propaganda behalf of any candidate. The non-profit corporation will be in existence "perpetually."

ARTICLE IV

Our assets and net income are for religious or charitable purposes only. We pledge that no director, officer, or member will benefit from our net income or assets. In the event of our corporation's dissolution, the treasurer will pay all debts and liabilities before distributing the remaining assets to a non-profit fund or foundation that operates solely for religious or charitable purposes. Together, we can continue spreading God's love and message, knowing that our organization is unwavering in its commitment to faith and the betterment of society.

ARTICLE IX

Directors shall be appointed by the pastor and ratified by the Elders. The Board of Elders shall fill the offices of Directors and officers of the Corporation when qualified persons are unable to do so.

ARTICLE X

Amendments: this Constitution may be amended or changed by a two-third (2/3) vote of officers(Directors) at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose. Provide a due notice of such proposed change shall be made.
