November 9, 2018

Dear KCA Families,

With a heavy heart I am informing you all that I have resigned as President and Director of Knight's Christian Academy. I have loved being with your children on a daily bases and will continue to pray for them and your families. I ask that you all pray for my family and the changes in our lives. I will continue to teach VPK till Christmas break on December 21, 2018. I do ask that at this time, parents do not share this with your children. I am wanting the next month we have together to be a positive and fun time together.

Starting today, if you have any questions or concerns please direct those to Kellie or the board of directors.

Sincerely,

Wanda Conley
