Attached Article III Purpose:

The Platform for Cuban Integration is a non-profit, non-partisan organization whose goal is to advocate for the rights of African descendants and other alternative groups in Cuba, promote their rights and the recovery of their history, and their active participation in the foundation and development of the Cuban nation and its culture.

The organization aspires to promote a debate that will contribute to knowledge about the difficulties facing African descendants and all those who are discriminated against in contemporary Cuba, as well as actions aimed at confronting the problem and facilitating communication about it worldwide through various media.

Our intention is to support the struggle kept up by these discriminated communities within an official climate that ignores the problem and impedes in any attempt carried out by those who are the most affected.

We aspire to establish a publication in which those who suffer the heavy burden of racism and marginalization can express their needs, aspirations and proposals for achieving full integration. The publication will be open to all those who are interested in doing so and can offer their experiences to contribute to dealing with a subject so essential in today's world, not only for Cuba, but also for all other countries that received the African diaspora or those in which minorities discriminated by those in power reside.
