Diane:

I thank you for taking my call last Friday for the benefit of my client. Contrary to our discussions and our belief, we had not yet delivered to your Division our client's signed original of its Not for Profit Articles of Incorporation with the changes required pursuant to the referenced letter numbers in this matter. Please find enclosed/attached herewith an original (being mailed) of our client's Articles of Incorporation containing:

- (1) a corporation designation pursuant to Article I, "Inc."; and
- (2) a proper purpose statement pursuant to Article III:

The Corporation is being formed as a not for profit for the purposes of providing childcare services and not-for-profit fundraising to support this purpose and any and all such other activities permitted under the applicable law (s) and/or the laws of Florida

No additional fees are enclosed as same was not required pursuant to the two (2) letters issued in this matter and enclosed herewith for your convenience.

We request that if the enclosures/attachments herewith/hereto meet with your Division's approval and are found responsive and compliant to the letters of correction issued that same be expedited and the originally requested and paid for Certified Copy and Certificate be issued post haste. In the interim, we again thank you for your most gracious and professional courtesies in this matter. Be well my friend.

Sincerely,
