AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE III; SPECIFIC PURPOSE FOR WHICH THIS CORPORATION IS ORGANIZED:

The following shall be the new content of Article III of the organization:

United By Faith Legal Ministry, INC. is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes providing immigration law representation to low income and indigent immigrants; Furthermore, United By Faith Legal Ministry will contribute but not limited to local communities in Central Florida by lessening the burdens of government by providing legal assistance to immigrants and other services, lessening of neighborhood tensions, elimination of prejudice and discrimination against immigrants, defense of human and civil rights secured by law, and combating community deterioration and juvenile delinquency by creating interactive volunteering opportunities.

Upon dissolution of this organization, all remaining assets must be used exclusively for exempt purposes, which is charitable as stated above. United By Faith Legal Ministry, INC Practices law legally, with at least one attorney who supervises non-attorney legal staff; or with Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) recognition for the agency and at least one partially accredited representative with broad knowledge of immigration law and access to an immigration attorney or fully accredited representative for consultation. Mission Statement sets forth the program's goals; specifically referencing serving low income and other vulnerable foreign-born persons. Fee schedule: based on a well-defined rationale, documented, accessible to staff and clients, consistently implemented. It should also accommodate client need for sliding fee scale or fee waiver. Community Development and Advocacy Relationships are developed with non-paid support personnel (volunteers, interpreters, pro bono attorneys, law students, and non-law student interns) and established policies guide the responsibilities and scope of work for each category of volunteer community outreach strategies are developed to educate on immigration issues, build institutional partnerships, and draw clients to charitable immigration services. 1.501(c)(3)-1(b)(1)(ii)

United By Faith Legal Ministry focuses on problems faced by low-income immigrants and religious congregations that can only be resolved through advocacy, education, pro bono representation, litigation, and media. The Ministry identifies legal trends and issues affecting immigrants and pursues responsive solutions. The Ministry prioritizes its advocacy agenda in conjunction with its affiliates. At the local level, the Ministry supports the efforts of advocates working to combat state and local anti-immigrant measures. To increase representation to detained immigrants, the Ministry coordinates programs with Board of Immigration Appeals representatives. United By Faith Legal Ministry seeks to develop capacity for lasting change by working with cross-section of regional groups in under-served communities, (whether geographic, ethnic, or population-specific communities) to start or improve existing programs that will allow millions of immigrants throughout the United States to understand and to exercise their rights. Our Legal Department is in charge of all immigration cases. Our main focus is on battered women and unaccompanied minors. Our Legal Ministry is supporting U.S Citizenship and Civics education as well as other campaigns of the Department of Homeland Security.

As a faith based organization, we strive for lessening neighborhood tensions, eliminating prejudice and discrimination against immigrants, defend human and civil rights, bring
